URJA NOOR SCHOLARSHIP (FREE EDUCATION)

The Sustainable energy sector, which includes renewable energy sources like solar, wind, hydropower, geothermal, and bioenergy, has experienced significant growth in recent years. Driven by the global push to combat climate change, reduce greenhouse gas emissions, and transition from fossil fuels to more environmentally friendly alternatives, this sector is rapidly evolving and expanding.

As the renewable energy sector expands, so too does its potential to create jobs. This sector has the capacity to generate millions of new employment opportunities across various fields, ranging from engineering and research to project management and maintenance. The sustainable energy sector is not just a key player in combating climate change; it is also a significant driver of economic growth and job creation.
